REVIEW COPIES ON LAW SCHOOL EXCHANGE

Easy reading and notetaking.

The Document Viewer on Law School Exchange presents books the same way they appear in print. You'll be able to see the full contents and make a well-informed decision about adopting titles for your classes.

Word searches in the Document Viewer quickly find the information you need, and you can easily customize your view and add notes.

DocViewer features:

- Search
- Resize text
- Highlight text
- Add sticky notes to the text
- Copy and paste text into your notes
- Take notes that coordinate with the page you're reading

Share. Publish. Collaborate.

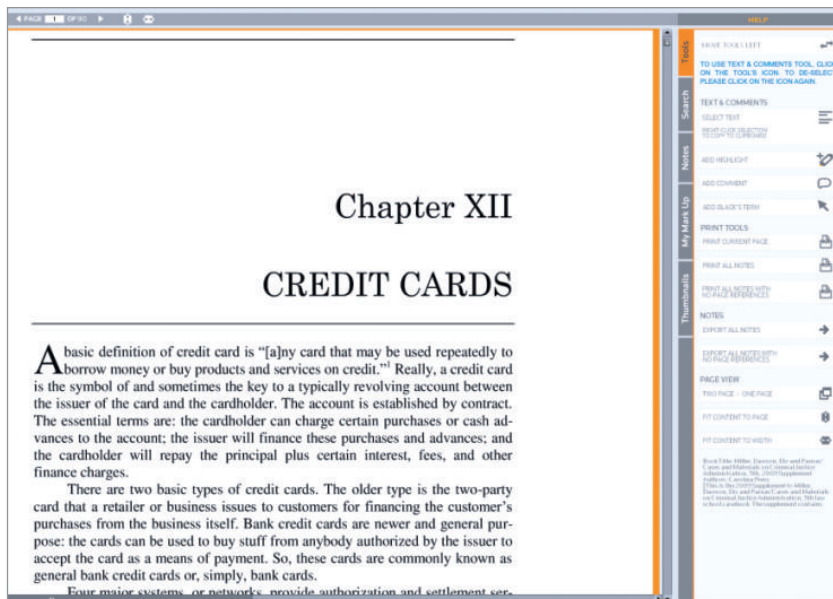

Law School Exchange allows law school faculty to share, digitally publish, and find scholarship and teaching materials in collaboration with an online community of peers. It is a networking and content-sharing site that brings law school faculty and content together in an exciting and innovative way that's in tune with the changing needs of legal education.

Fully integrated with The West Education Network® (TWEN®), Law School Exchange makes it easy to deliver digital content directly to your students.

A growing collection online.

We are continually adding titles to Law School Exchange. If you are looking for a review title that isn't available yet on Law School Exchange, go to westacademic.com or contact your account manager at westacademic@thomsonreuters.com or foundation-press@thomsonreuters.com.

You can begin viewing our review copies online immediately if you've already joined Law School Exchange. If not, it takes just a few moments to register your OnePass username and password.
